

From the moment you enter the gate and climb upwards, you know you're somewhere special.

A serene sense of place pervades as the fresh oak and cedar air sets your mind at ease. From here on, your story is yours to create. Travaasa Austin has a way of making you feel it was created just for you, not masses of tourists, so you could experience a trip unlike any other.

Relax and re-center.

Adjacent to our signature infinity edge pool, you'll find The Spa at Travaasa®, with an expansive menu of services and treatments. Our culinary team is ready morning, noon and night with healthy and delectable farm-to-table cuisine in Jean's Kitchen or on the Mesquite Patio.

Expand your horizons.

An abundance of activities designed around our five experience pillars—Culinary, Fitness, Culture, Adventure and Wellness—ensure that there's something that will tickle your fancy. Secluded hikes, yoga classes, Chef-led cooking prep and instruction, an unforgettable equine experience, state-of-the-art challenge course and more with nearby access to Lake Travis and championship golf.

Everything is here.

Whether you are seeking a thrilling adventure, peace and quiet, or crave a bit of both, Travaasa Austin excels at providing refuge in an enviable setting, nestled against 210 acres of the unspoiled Balcones Canyonlands Preserve. There's no other place on earth like this.

A memorable stay awaits guests ages 16 and up.
