Best in the World

Cities, Islands, Hotels, Resorts, Cruises, Airlines

Here they are, the final winners sifted from more than 8 million votes cast in our annual Readers' Choice Awards survey, swept up together to form travel's apex of excellence. Each cube represents one of the 1,285 top scorers who arrived at their allotted place on the following pages (color coded by category).

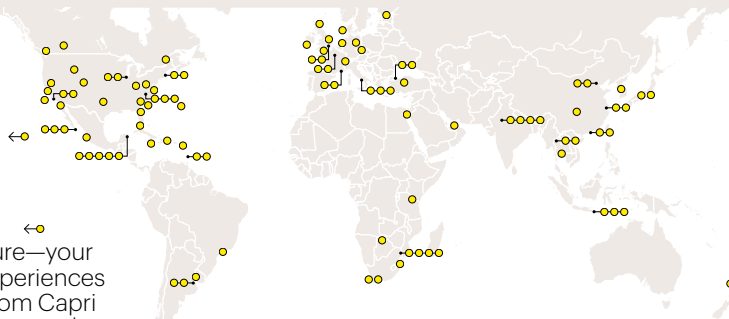

These awards reflect the combined opinions of 28,876 Condé Nast Traveler readers rating the cities, islands, and hotels they visited in the past year, and the airlines and cruise ships they traveled with. For its range and depth, the Readers' Choice Awards are a unique and trusted source of advice globally, and that is thanks to America's most discerning and demanding travelers—you.

Download our digital edition, debuting this month (see page 22 for more) and you'll find a photo gallery of the Top 100 winners (see next page) as well as detailed pages on all 1,120 top hotels and resorts.

Top 100

United States

It's a year of firsts on our domestic lists: A perennial top-ten U.S. city, Charleston grabs the No. 1 spot for the first time in a list dominated by coastal cities. Chicago's Elysian Hotel and Williamsburg's Colonial Houses each make their Readers' Choice Awards debuts as our nation's top hotels.

The Elysian, Chicago's 60-story Gold Coast skyscraper, emerges at No. 1 just two years after opening. The 188 guest rooms are joined by 52 private residences.

Custom fabrics, hardwood floors, Audubon prints—classic decor helps The Carlyle earn a 93.6 for rooms and the highest overall score, 92.3, in New York's competitive market.

One of the oldest hotels on the United States list, and located in our oldest city, Casa Monica first opened its doors in 1888, and reopened them in 1999 after an epic renovation.

Romanian-born architect and designer Adam Tihany is the man behind the rooms at Dallas's Joule, which debuts on the U.S. list with a lofty rooms score of 91.1.

METHODOLOGY The Condé Nast Traveler Readers' Choice Survey, begun in 1988, is available to all readers through a secure Web site. This year's final tabulations of 28,876 responses were done by Global Market Insights, Inc., of Boston. Organization: The online questionnaire contains lists of candidates in various categories (Cities, Hotels, etc.). Individual candidates are judged by relevant criteria for each. Those that receive a required minimum number of responses are deemed eligible for a Readers' Choice Award. Evaluation: Each candidate is rated, criterion by criterion, on a five-point scale: excellent, very good, good, fair, and poor. Those scores, which represent the percentage of respondents rating a candidate excellent or very good, are averaged to determine the final score published here. For example, the Park Hyatt Seoul's rating, 95.2, is the average of its scores for all hotel criteria: Food/Dining, Location, Overall Design, Rooms, and Service.

On the radar of readers since it opened in 2007, the trendy 77-room Hazelton Hotel joins the list of Canada's best hotels this year, with Toronto's highest score.

In the heart of Niagara-on-the-Lake and blocks from Lake Ontario, the Prince of Wales Hotel earns Canada's only perfect score for its location.

Two resorts that debut on Mexico's lengthening lists, the Capella Pedregal and Capella Ixtapa, were introduced to readers in annual Hot List issues, in 2010 and 2009, respectively.

All three resorts in the Mayakobá development on the Riviera Maya—Banyan Tree, Fairmont, and Rosewood—help the Yucatán add fully 27 properties to the Top 50.

Caribbean/Atlantic

Bermuda holds on to the top spot in the Caribbean and Atlantic islands among an array of saints—including St. Lucia, which is displaying serious luxury chops: Five resorts and one hotel make the lists, four of them with scores in the stratospheric 90s.
